Excerpt from The African Repository, and Colonial Journal, Vol. 12: February, 1836 Among the objections which have been made, I must confess that I am most surprised at one which seems to be prevalent, to wit, that these people will be unwilling to be colonized. What, Sir, are they not men Will they not be actuated by the same motives of interest and ambition, which influence other men Or will they prefer remaining in a hopeless state of degradation for themselves and their children, to the prospect of the full enjoyment of civil rights and a state of equality What brought our ancestors to these shores They had no friendly hand to lead them; no powerful human arm to protect them. They left the land of their nativity; the sepulchres of their fathers; the comforts of civilized society; and all the endearments of friends and relatives, and early associations, to traverse the ocean, to clear the forests, to encounter all the hardships of a new settlement, and to brave the dangers of the tomahawk and scalping knife. How many were destroyed! Sometimes whole...
