Excerpt from The Family Record: Devoted for 1897 to the Sackett, the Weygant and the Mapes Families, and to Ancestors of Their Intersecting Lines; Nos. 1 12 Valuable additions to the fund of information relating to the numerous Mapes families of Orange County, N. Y., come from Hon. Creo. E. Mapes. Of The Philadelphia Times. And the Hon. Jesse S. Mapes, of Syracuse, Nebraska. And, lastly, of a score of desirable records of different branches of the Sackett family received from distant points, that most far reaching-and serviceable in the work in hand is an original manuscript sketch of the early history of the family, prepared by Judge Garry V. Sackett, a prominent lawyer of Central New York, over sixty years ago, which comes to the publisher by the way of distant New Mexico. As the proof sheets of material from, which the February number of the Family Record is to be made up come to the publisher, the fact dawns upon his inexperienced mind that two square feet of type cannot be successfully impressed on one side of...
