McGraw-Hill. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 208 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.9in. Make Every Business Day a Masterpiece This fascinating book is a must-read for every leader or individual that aspires to become one. It eloquently offers tips, examples, and analogies that help the reader focus effort and attention in that noble attempt to become a better leader. Eric Weber, Associate Dean IESE, Business School Unlike explorations of leadership that too often provide more heat than light, OMalley and Baker offer a refreshing and engaging lens that not only illuminates but inspires the reader. Mary C. Gentile, Creator and Director of Giving Voice to Values, and Senior Research Scholar, Babson College This is not another book on leadership. Its essence is that all great leaders show an intense artistry. OMalley and Baker give leadership criteria that weave business language with a strong dose of artistic principles. A great read. Chuck Royce, Chairman, Royce Funds Impressive! OMalley and Baker have written a book that is at once entertaining, intellectually engaging, and practical a tough combination, rarely achieved. Ed Greenberg, University of Colorado, coauthor of Turbulence OMalley and Baker thoughtfully illustrate the intersections between leadership and art, explaining the requisite attributes for leadership excellence, such as focus, intellectual challenge, imagination, and authenticity. Josh Weston, Honorary Chairman, Automatic Data Processing, Inc. OMalley and Baker have written a wonderful book that illustrates the complexities and necessities of what should be understood as the ultimate qualities of leadership. David Finn, Chairman, Ruder Finn, Inc. About the Book: Artists put their work on display for everyone to judge, accepting a position of vulnerability for want of something important to say and in the service of contributing to the common good. Artists bring people closer together by providing a forum for shared experiences. Artists challenge, excite, comfort,...
